++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain spreading north tonight. Some heavy showers on Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry through the evening, with some clear spells. However, thicker cloud will bring outbreaks of rain from the south during the second part of the night, the rain becoming widespread and heavy in places by morning. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Outbreaks of locally heavy rain at first. Rain turning into sunny spells and showers in the afternoon, occasionally heavy and slow-moving, before gradually easing from the west in the evening. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday and Sunday rather cool and unsettled with some showers and perhaps the odd spell of more persistent rain. Bright or sunny intervals and a few showers on Monday.
